

Invitation to seminar

What is the role of the university in building a sustainable society?

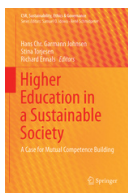

Friday, October 2, 11am – 2 pm,
Campus Kristiansand, auditorium: B3 007. Free entrance

We hereby invite you to an interesting seminar and presentations and discussion related to the book: Higher Education in a Sustainable Society: A Case for Mutual Competence Building. The book presents different perspectives on how universities can address the challenge of sustainability.

The seminar will have presentations from different authors of the book and a discussion on the sustainability challenge for universities. The seminar is organized by University of Agder in cooperation with Regional Forum Agder (VRI Agder, Regional plan Agder 2020 and RIS Centre)

You are welcome to participate.

Dag G. Aasland, Hans Chr. Garmann Johnsen, Stina, Torjesen, Richard Ennals

Higher Education in a Sustainable Society: A Case for Mutual Competence -Ennals.
<http://www.springer.com/us/book/9783319159188>

Program

Short presentation of the book: Higher Education in a Sustainable Society. Short presentations by:

- Richard Ennals
- Aslaug Kristiansen
- Harald Knudsen
- Astrid Stifoss-Hanssen
- Tom Viggo Nilsen
- Stina Torjesen

Short presentation of the sustainability perspectives in the regional plan for Agder:

- Terje Damman

Break - Food and drinks will be served.

Panel diskusjon: Frank Reichert (UiA), Dag G. Aasland (UiA), Terje Damman (VAF), Fylkesvaraordfører Jon-Olav Strand fra Aust-Agder Fylkeskommune, Siri Mathisen (NHO), Jan Roger Olsen (SSHF)

Round up: Where do we go from here?

- Dag G. Aasland